MEDICAL OATH

Medical Oath

At this moment when I start my profession as a medical doctor,
I openly declare and promise that I will dedicate my life to humanity.
I hereby swear openly, with my free will and on my honor;
That I will always protect the respect and gratitude I owe to my teachers;
I will execute this art carefully and attentively with the commands of my conscience in mind;
I will make my patients' health and public health my utmost priority;
That I will respect the secrets of the people who need my services and that I will keep their secrets;
I will perpetuate the honor and pure traditions of the medical profession;
I will treat my colleagues as my brothers and sisters;
I will not let religion, language, nationality, gender, race, political affiliation or social class come between me and duties towards my patients;
I will absolutely respect human life;
Even under duress, I will not use my medical knowledge against human values and laws;
I swear openly, with my free will and on my honor.
